

Niche Service Provider with the Work Stacking Up & Fantastic Profits

This business has a problem many are searching high and low for. Work keeps walking in the door, and they have gone from having a week of work ahead to having months of work on-site ready to crack into.

The current owner cannot keep up and believes the business is in the best position for someone with the energy and motivation to capitalise on the opportunity to substantially grow revenue and profitability.

The work is straight forward but with substantial barriers to entry, on-site in Central/North Hamilton, Monday-Friday; all training can be provided by the Vendor during handover.

If you would rather not have staff, you can do the work yourself (ability to work with your hands and be physically active for the role), or you can put in a team to do the physical work and enjoy good returns as a part-time owner supervising the work quality and growing the business's bright future.

In a niche industry adjacent to construction. Getting in now, as the construction industry market emerges from a multi-
