Prior to joining Barker Business Brokerage, Karen has led the discrete process through various stages on 49 Aged Care deals representing the investor on both the buy and sell sides. She has also completed $902m of successful business transactions across diverse industries with the majority led from her executive role in the NZX listed investment group Hellaby Holdings.

To minimize stress on facility staff and residents, Aged Care operations and Retirement Villages are frequently sold below the radar. This is especially true with higher value transactions.

Karen has deep experience managing confidential transactions and has an extensive network of industry contacts and their professional advisers.

If you are looking to buy into this high growth sector, please contact Karen Urwin to learn about what's currently available.
