

PTE, Cat.2, Offering Safer Workplace Training

Established in 2008, this small Category 2 Private Training Establishment (PTE) is registered and accredited by New Zealand Qualification Authority (NZQA). It has a great reputation in the Lower North Island, having set a benchmark by providing a full range of health and safety solutions, from AED supply to custom-created first aid courses and event medics, First Aid Health and Safety, Drug and Alcohol Screening, Electrical Workers Competency, and more.

This business provides comprehensive training services throughout the region, offering customised courses tailored to meet specific workplace requirements. The business is managed by a part-time owner who serves as the director and assessor, supported by a dedicated team of full-time and part-time staff in various roles, all of whom are content with their positions and intend to remain. With opportunities for expansion both within the current region and in other regions, the business holds significant growth potential.

The vendor will ensure a complete handover and may be available for a period of time after the sale of the business.

The PTE industry has many barriers to entry. We feel this business might suit someone who wants to enter in the
