

Great Home Based Earner... 25 Hours = Over $100K

This is a great home based earner. With just a phone and computer in the home office, the current owner generates earnings of over $100,000 with just 25 hours a week input. The business sits in the construction industry and has grown year on year through the GFC by over 10% PA and with a building boom underway and the growing confidence in the economy, the future is looking bright for a new owner. In addition there are forward orders in place which will add further security and comfort to this investment. The brand was developed in 1971 and since then this group has established itself as the industry leader within New Zealand and is now one of the most trusted, recognised brands.

The product is well respected, culminating industry awards that recognise the unique design and features, which sets them apart from the competition. The product is quality and with the unique design it makes easy selling as it sets you apart from others within the industry. The business has the exclusive area of Rodney, which is rapidly growing with 20,000 homes being built over the next decade.

This operation has exactly what you want: flexible hours, an instantly recognisable trusted brand, product with a unique
