

Pizza Franchise - Weekly Turnover $25K (Plus)

South Island - Vendor says present all offers! This could be a Hell of a buy with current weekly sales at this time of the year (winter) around $25,000 to $29,000! This business has it all - excellent average weekly sales, profits of over $100K to working owner, a solid team of staff, further potential to expand business growth, and to top it off it's located in the heart of one of the most stunning towns in the world! â ¢ Positive growth in sales. â ¢ Great Turnover and profits. â ¢ Solid staff. â ¢ Franchise with great marketing initiatives. This business was turning over more than a million per annum before the Christchurch earthquake and for over a year now has seen a positive growth in sales. Get in now and ride the wave back up. This is an opportunity where you can actually see the potential, as it is there in the history.

The opportunity is unique to the franchise group as it holds a liquor license and there is huge potential (with plans already drawn up) to develop the store further into a pizza/bar type venue, taking advantage of the 1.9 million visitors that visit and party in this town each year. If you have been considering a pizza franchise, consider this and make an offer! Note: the business was previously advertised at $299,000.

Asking Price = Present all offers. This won't last so call me
