

Independent Home Based Business in Queenstown

An Opportunity Right Here in New Zealand's Adventure Capital. Cash surplus to one working owner in 2018 was circa $150,000. With the unprecedented growth in building and tourism in the Queenstown Lakes District there is no shortage of existing and new customers for this profitable business. Being an independent business there are no ongoing franchise fees, rules, territory restrictions, or advertising contribution, the business is all yours. Also, you determine the hours you work. You could choose to have long weekends free to get out with the family and enjoy the region's activities or work those extra hours to further increase your income. There is a good mixture of domestic and commercial customers with no dependence on any one customer for future profitability and growth. Current customer base includes upmarket residential complexes, hotel chains, motels, campervan companies, backpackers, cafes, restaurants, fast food outlets, property management companies and other commercial customers. The services this business offers are pest control both domestic and commercial, window and gutter cleaning, water blasting, house washes, chimney sweeps. This business has huge potential to grow within its current territory. The other possibilities are to add new services and even expand the business and brand into other
