Prime Opportunity Civil Construction

Just nine months into the 2019 financial year, this business is showing a healthy cash surplus of $1.6M which is forecast to reach $1.9M by the end of the 2019 FY!

Situated in a region of New Zealand globally acclaimed for employment and tourism, this well-established, semi-managed operation has captured a significant client base and maintains a steady stream of ongoing work. Very well organised and professional, this company specialises in horizontal and directional drilling and other in-demand civil construction services. It is a major player in the area's civil construction arena.

With a strong reputation, well maintained state-of-the-art equipment, a highly trained workforce, a very competent GM and excellent growth forecasts, this business represents a prime opportunity for the right candidate.

Barriers to entry are significant due to the positioning of the business within its region and key relationships with its clients including a strong working relationship with the council.

This business would suit someone with knowledge in civil engineering/civil construction.
