Residential / Commercial Painting, 30+ Years

Home based and covering the greater Auckland region, this is one thriving business not to be missed

Established over three decades ago, this business presents a strong, reliable revenue & profit, and has weathered two NZ recessions and still going strong.

After almost thirty-five years, the owner of this business is ready to hang up his paint brushes and give a discerning buyer to opportunity to take over this well-established business with a huge reputation.

Member of the Master Painters New Zealand

STILL WANT MORE well how about no expensive premises to lease, no expensive equipment to replace, but a solid reputation second to none, which will ensure a new owner will hit the ground running. Currently turning away work, the owner knows with virtually no effort or additional investment the business can grow exponentially (if required) in a very short period.
