

Printing Profits – Price Drop $639,000 now $549,000

Two Locations: Invercargill and Cromwell

This digital printing and publishing business Quantum Print has two high profile locations in districts that are experiencing a significant upturn in commercial activity, with one being in a popular holiday destination and construction hub for the Queenstown Lakes District.

Established 16 years ago, this business has all the systems and processes in place as well as a stable, loyal and experienced workforce which will ensure an easy transition for the new owner.

Both branches offer fast, high quality, cost effective design and print solutions and as a result of their top level service, the business has developed great relationships with the local community. Income stream is varied and spans across a wide customer base with no dependence on any one customer for current or future business.

Turnover for the past four years is circa $1million PA with an annual surplus of around $272,000 to one fulltime working owner who's in the office Monday to Friday, 8am till 5.
