business has built a well-respected name in the market place. With established systems and trained staff, the company can capitalise on the growing industry demand. 2020 FY revenue and profits are expected to increase exponentially with a recent change to legislation that affects up to *30% - 40% of their existing clients auditing requirements.

The investment is very secure as the industry is niche, and somewhat protected with difficult barriers to entry. Once clients are secured they are then locked-in to an annual service and to top it off, the vendor is willing to stay within the company offering even further security to the purchaser.
