

Organise Your Yearly Planner! Mobile Lifestyle Biz

You have the opportunity to organise your own lifestyle to suit with this adaptable mobile business model. The current vendor has been self-employed for 10 years; building the business to the success it is today; while still being able to take long summer breaks and long weekends to suit a recreational lifestyle. Operating from a home base, the established client base are mainly good, solid, top organisations and visited at their workplace to provide a convenient service for their personnel. These clients typically pay on time and arrange forward bookings, often a month in advance - allowing you to plan your cash flow! You could continue to run the business as is, however should you be looking for a business with expansion possibilities, there is the very real opportunity to facilitate quick growth with national expansion. A business of this nature is unique and its services are often required by the Dept. of Labour. Specialised knowledge is not essential, top notch equipment is included and a contract workforce is available on demand. Priced at $190,000, this affordable low cost operation has been showing a steady increase in profit and last year's cash surplus was over $100,000.
