

Cafe/Deli High Turnover North Shore European Style

A consistently high weekly turnover of $16,000 and over and a record Christmas Eve one day sales figure of over $10,000 speaks volumes about the authenticity of the product this cafe/deli provides. Their exquisite range of foods and award winning coffee is sought after by the discerning locals in this elegant Auckland suburb and is a destination for tourists after reading the glowing magazine reviews. A further attraction is the in-house deli producing a gourmet range of smoked meats, selling imported cheeses, ready-made meals and a stunning pastry selection. The cafe has a significant take away clientele and is open from 8am - 4.30pm 6 days a week. The owner currently works 4.5 days a week plus every other weekend in a front of house role enjoying the interaction with the customers. The kitchen is complete with a trained chef and able assistants who are happy to stay in full time employment and assist the Vendor during the handover period. The new owner will also receive the Vendor's original authentic recipes. Very affordable lease, an extensive equipment list and an excellent set of accounts offers potential for a new owner to fulfil their cuisine dream. This place is truly unique and so attractive to the Kiwi palette. Asking Price: $329,000 + Stock. To find out more about this opportunity please register your details by visiting
