Looking for a solid, stunning centre above the normal offerings you have seen? This is it.

The centre is stunning (fit out is amazing and A++), well-staffed @ approx. 50% staffing costs (50% of turnover), fully managed and solid high occupancy all equates to a very stable business. The area is already established with childcare centres so the likelihood of any more 'popping up' soon is slim. This would suit a first time buyer from outside the industry as the management & staffing is brilliant. It obviously could also suit someone adding to their portfolio. The vendor has owned this centre 4 years now and has genuine reasons for exiting the industry; it would be with an extremely heavy heart.
