

Wholesale, Home Based, Profitable Little Gem!

With a successful 15 year trading history, this profitable wholesale jewellery/fashion accessory and homeware business is currently operating from an Auckland location. With minimal space required, it could be relocated anywhere in NZ and operated from a home base.

The business offers a selection of quality jewellery, fashion accessories and homeware to a large and loyal, nationwide retail client base. The current vendor works part time due to other business and family commitments and firmly believes with a full time focus the business has the potential to double current turnover.

Excellent relationships have been cultivated with both the overseas suppliers and clients and the streamlined systems make this an easy to operate business. The business allows for flexible hours and would allow a new owner time to either spend on other projects or increase to a full time focus and reap the rewards.

This business would suit someone with an interest in fashion and/or design who would like to operate their business from home, with flexible hours. No particular experience is required, just enthusiasm to drive this business forward and capitalise
