

Multi-Faceted Tourism Businesses – Go Next Level

This first business is a popular tourism related business which has grown significantly over the last 15 or more years. It has a sound business model set up for years to come and future opportunities to maximise the utilisation of at least $8.0mil of assets and stock long-term. It has a secure management structure already in place to meet any challenges in front of them. With footprints in both islands there is ample opportunity to further scale this business to new heights.

Operational processes are securely in place with a complete booking system currently operating at full pace, and a cash flow platform creating a seamless interaction with a rapidly growing international client base.

This business is a key player in the tourism industry, with significant confirmed bookings ahead promising a great cash flow and on track for a forecasted circa $2.0 mil EBIPTDA for FY24.

The second business cross-utilises key staff in another successful business venture included with this business or sold separately, specialising in a tiny-house and campervan building business. In fact, this business could easily be a very
