

55+ Faith Based Childcare Centre – West Auckland

This managed centre is well-established, boasts a good reputation and offers an investor an annualised EBIDT based on current enrolments of around $235,000.

An important part of the community, this lovely preschool offers early childhood education with a focus on faith-based values.

Located in West Auckland, and with occupancy over 80% and rising, you can take comfort in the fact that the teaching team have a level of engagement within the community that should allow for a smooth transition to the new owner.

The centre charges little in the way of parent fees but receives maximum funding from Ministry by way of equity funding and targeted funding providing the owners with a good level of sustainable profits. Some capex will be required.

Within a residential setting, and in close proximity to local schools, the centre offers a new owner the chance to be an influence the lives of children and families who attend the centre along with long term financial benefits.

Asking price $675,000.
