

Auckland Accountancy Practice for Sale

Are you looking for an Auckland based chartered accountancy practice?

This well-established chartered accountancy and business advisory practice is new to the market now that the current owner is contemplating retirement at the end of the current financial year. Deciding to bring the business to the market now and assist the new owner over the next 8-12 months, the vendor is wanting to ensure a smooth transition and retention of existing clients.

Based on the outskirts of Auckland within easy commuting distance of the central CBD, the practice has experienced staff with longevity in the business who will support a smooth operation and transition of what is a $1m practice. We anticipate this practice will be of interest not only to Auckland based practitioners but those from other parts of the country looking to expand their fee base with a sold acquisition in Auckland.

Please note: This is the sale of a going concern and is not the sale of a book of fees. The successful purchaser will be expected to take over the lease, the staff as required and the systems, which is reflected in the price. If you are seeking your
