

Game Fishing Charters – Pacific Islands Business

It's like being on holiday every day of the week. This fully accredited Pacific Islands based Fishing Charter business requires minimal input from the owner; the current owner working on the business about 5 hours a week.

With a General Manager & excellent reliable staff in place, this business makes for a great investment. The new owner could elect to sit back & leave the business as is, or work on it & continue to grow the excellent & respected reputation it has earned over the last 22 years. Currently focusing on both game fishing & spear fishing, this business is renown for their excellent strike rates & sending their customers home with very memorable photos of who won on the day. They constantly have very good forward bookings with deposits paid.

The fleet of boats is fully certified & very well-maintained, plus excellent onboard equipment meets the current needs of the business; significant opportunity remains to grow this business without immediate further capital requirements.

As 99% of the customers are tourists, it's about balancing the utilisation of the fleet to the best advantage while still
