

ONLINE – tick / HOMEBASED – tick / PROFITABLE – tick!

With more people opting to work from home, this business provides an excellent opportunity for someone who is keen to run a homebased venture which focuses on the online sale of a popular automotive accessory.

Operating since 2016, the business is exceeding its forecasted revenue even through the Covid affected period Auckland has experienced this financial year.

Sales and enquiries from across New Zealand are streaming through the very well systemised website and the business is continuing to grow from strength to strength. The business also boasts a 5-star rating on Google and social media.

An installation service is offered in the Auckland region to complement the sales and approximately 30% of orders require this service. Considerable time and research has been spent sourcing quality brands to suit the New Zealand market and the end customers appreciate the value of dealing with a company that offers expertise in the product lines it supplies.

A 2022 financial years profit of $180,000 has been forecasted and the business is well on the way to exceeding this. There is
