Rock Solid Hire Biz – In Demand, High Gross Margin

The Vendors of this rock solid hire business have recently re-located to their lifestyle destination and during this process made the decision to sell their thriving business. Established in 2005, supplying high end and corporate clientele, the service and product they provide is considered exceptional; so much so that their clients just automatically call them first when the need arises. 70-80% of business is repeat – with the major portion of enquiries coming in via email. This means that with modern technology the working owner need not be confined to a desk. Proven automated operational systems and processes provide an easy step by step guide for the day to day operation, making this a very simple to manage business. A new working owner can expect to earn circa $166,000, BUT, should you have the option of using your home office and home storage facility, you could expand this already low overhead business even further by removing the existing rent and thereby increasing the cash surplus to over $180,000! Plus... there is an opportunity for nationwide expansion. A new owner purchasing this business will be off to a great start as the high quality product is in excellent condition and in demand AND you will not be encumbered with sky-high working capital requirements. On the market for $520,000 all inclusive. This business will sell. For more
