

Accountancy in the Horowhenua

This well-established, Horowhenua-based, Chartered Accountancy and Business Advisory Practice is new to the market and a rare opportunity given its size.

With annual fees exceeding $1m and a strong EBIT of more than $700k (excluding owners' remuneration) for the 2022 financial year, this is an opportunity not to be missed.

Based in a well-known town, not far from Wellington and Palmerston North, the low rent % along with staff costs below the industry average, are what help drive the substantial ROI of this practice.

The experienced staff with longevity in the business, along with a vendor ready to support a new owner, will ensure the smooth transition of this business and we anticipate the practice will be of interest to not only local practitioners but also those from the larger centres whose own practices do not enjoy returns at this level.

Please note: This is the sale of a going concern unless otherwise negotiated. The successful purchaser will be expected to negotiate with the landlord, take on the staff and systems all reflected in the price. If you are seeking a
