

Manuka Honey Production Business – Assets Sale

This business, situated in the Far North District, has a prosperous track record in producing high-quality manuka honey (ranging from UMF10+ to UMF25+).

Its offerings include a fully functioning manuka production business with approximately 400 active hives, with room to grow.

The business comes with purpose-built, fully contained buildings (including land & buildings), staff accommodation, and ample space to expand hive numbers and nucs.

Moreover, the business has secure hive locations with written land agreements, which includes wintering sites. It has a reliable team of competent beekeeping staff who are well-versed in apiary practices and production techniques and would like to continue working with the new owner. The business also has appropriate and purpose-built plant and equipment, and the vendors are willing to provide their knowledge and assistance for up to two years. The brand and website are also included in the purchase.

The sale includes Land and Building, approx. 400 Hives and
