

Dynamic & Streamlined Customs & Logistics Business

Over the past three decades, this dynamic freight handling company, located in Auckland, has consistently pushed the boundaries and established a benchmark for efficiency in global product transportation. They take immense pride in their ability to innovate, think outside the box, and remain at the forefront of industry advancements, ensuring they fulfill their commitments on an international scale.

This company understands that time is money to their customers and have set up their systems and services to ensure they are a one stop seamless operation starting with pickup, freight, in-house customs clearance, warehousing and distribution; delivering professional, reliable and cost effect freight solutions to large and small clients.

As this is a very profitable business for its size that is on the market for the first time, it will be an attractive option for an existing freight forwarding company, an investor or a person who is currently employed in the industry seeking an opportunity to move into their own business.
