

PTE, Category 2, Offering First Aid Training & More

Founded in 2008, this Category 2 Private Training Establishment (PTE) is accredited by the New Zealand Qualification Authority (NZQA). It has a strong reputation in the Lower North Island for providing a comprehensive range of First Aid training, Electrical Workers Competency Programme, Drug and Alcohol testing, and health and safety solutions.

This business offers tailored training services across the region, managed by a part-time owner who also serves as the director and assessor. The dedicated team of full-time and part-time staff are satisfied with their roles and plan to stay. There are opportunities for expansion within the current region and beyond, presenting significant growth potential.

The retiring vendor will ensure a complete handover and may remain available for a period after the sale, if required.

With many barriers to entry in the PTE industry, this business could suit someone looking to enter the market at a solid level (Cat.2) or an existing education/training business looking to expand its portfolio.
