

Custom Trailer & Engineering Business – Proven Performer w Managed Options

An excellent opportunity to acquire a long-established engineering and trailer manufacturing company located in the Bay of Plenty. With over a decade of consistent performance and a solid reputation for quality workmanship, this business is recognised for producing custom-built trailers and heavy transport solutions for both domestic and commercial clients.

Operating from well-equipped premises with skilled staff and efficient systems in place, the business offers a smooth handover and a solid foundation for continued growth.

Highlights:

- Over 10 years of established trading history
- Experienced and capable team in place
- Loyal customer base and strong local reputation
- Modern workshop with quality plant and equipment
- Excellent potential to expand into new markets or regions

This business would ideally suit an engineering professional or an established operator seeking to grow within a proven and profitable sector.
