

Established ERP Software Company – Profitable, Proven & Ready to Scale

Here's your chance to acquire a long-standing, New Zealand-based software business with over 44 years of development behind it and a loyal client base to match.

Built on a powerful, feature-rich suite of ERP modules, this business provides essential tools for companies across multiple sectors and sizes. With nearly half of its revenue recurring from licence fees and support, it delivers a robust, resilient income stream with significant growth potential – both locally and internationally.

Key Highlights:

- Profitable and well-established with recurring revenue making up a substantial share
- Exceptionally loyal team and long-standing customer relationships
- Proven IP: Comprehensive, modular ERP system developed through years of client-led innovation
- Strong reputation for usability and functionality across diverse industries
- Substantial investment already made in .NET development for future scalability
- Clear runway for expansion into new markets
