

A Standout Opportunity in Premium Bespoke Joinery | 30 Years in the Making

An opportunity to acquire an established premium business, with all genuine offers considered

For 30 years, this business has built an enviable reputation crafting bespoke kitchens, laundries, cabinetry, and custom furniture for some of New Zealand's most discerning homeowners, architects, designers, and builders.

This is not a volume operation. It sits firmly in the premium end of the market, where quality, reliability craftsmanship matter. The result is a profitable, well-established business with strong margins, repeat clients, and forward work already secured well into 2027.

Key highlights include:

- Approximate Seller's Discretionary Earnings for 2026 Financial Year of $600,000
- Forward orders secured with ongoing enquiry flow
- Strong reputation with architects, designers, and premium builders
- Skilled team and established systems already in place
- Vendor willing to assist with transition for up to 12 months
