

High-Earning Bespoke Manufacturing Business - Luxury Residential Sector

This high-performing bespoke manufacturing business operates in the premium residential market, delivering custom, high-value products for design-led homes. It holds a trusted position with architects, designers, and builders working on top-tier residential projects, supported by repeat work and referral-driven demand.

The business operates in a profitable niche with a forward order book in place, providing future revenue. Following some exceptional years, earnings have normalised while remaining highly attractive, with seller's discretionary earnings of approximately $1.0 million. Demand remains steady, underpinned by long-standing industry relationships and a reputation for quality delivery.
