

High-Performing Personal Care Studio – Lifestyle Meets Profitability

Step into ownership of a successful and well-established personal care studio delivering consistent profitability – Cash Surplus ~$500K – and strong community loyalty. Located in a vibrant regional hub of the South Island, this business offers the perfect balance between financial security and lifestyle appeal.

With a skilled, dedicated team and systems already in place, the studio runs efficiently and is primed for continued growth. Services are in steady demand, with a large database of loyal clients and excellent word-of-mouth referrals.

This opportunity is ideal for a hands-on owner or couple with leadership, marketing, or operational skills. Bring fresh energy to front-of-house, explore new service offerings, and grow the business further – while enjoying immediate cashflow from day one.

To ensure a seamless transition, the current owner is available to provide training and support for an agreed handover period, if required.
