

Wellington Region – Steady, Secure, and Well-Established

Consistency, stability, and longevity—this well-established chartered accountancy practice in the Wellington Region has all three.

With a loyal client base and a strong reputation built over many years, this firm has been a reliable performer, providing steady returns and a solid foundation for the future.

For an accountant looking to step into ownership or an established firm seeking expansion, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a respected practice with a capable team already in place. The retiring owner is available to assist with a smooth transition.
