

North Shore Event Hire Business – BELOW Asset Value

Step into ownership of an event hire business with over two decades of proven performance – for less than the cost of its assets. With a meticulously maintained inventory valued at over $1.1 million new, you're acquiring a fully operational business for below the depreciated asset value.

Strategically located on Auckland's North Shore, the business operates from a well-presented facility including a showroom, office, and warehouse – all purpose-designed to support efficient operations. Its strong brand presence, impeccable reputation, and repeat client base across both private and commercial sectors provide an immediate springboard for continued success.

High barriers to entry: capital investment, infrastructure, and brand equity – mean new competitors will struggle to match what's already in place. Meanwhile, growth opportunities are abound in corporate events, catering partnerships, and digital marketing expansion.

Asking $460,000, including $533,000 of depreciated plant and stock.

Price $460,000
