Golden Opportunity – High Quality Joinery Business

Overview

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a well-established joinery and cabinetry business based in Auckland, renowned for its multi-award-winning work and strong reputation in the premium fit-out market. The business has built its name on integrity, exceptional quality, and high-level trade skills, specialising in both residential and commercial fitouts.

Business Background

Operating for over 30 years, the current owner, who is heading towards 80 has done his dash now, and with health concerns, has decided to step back after decades of dedicated effort. The business has consistently achieved healthy profits, with an average annual return of around $700,000 over the last five years. Supported by a blue-chip client base and a team of highly skilled and loyal staff, the business is positioned for continued success and growth under new ownership.

Relocation and Merger Opportunities

The business requires relocation, with two clear options available to the new owner: move to a newly identified factory or merge into an existing operation. The vendor is committed to providing support during the handover process and is
