

Long Established Waikato Security Business

Here is a rare opportunity to buy an established, profitable security installation and monitoring business in the mighty Waikato.

Successfully providing a range of security services across the Auckland, Waikato and Bay of Plenty, with some work nationwide, it's time for the vendor to retire and pass it on to a new owner.

Highlights:

- Successfully operating for over 25 years with a strong industry presence
- Average owners' earnings circa $200,000
- Skilled & experienced team in place
- Minimal owner involvement, offering great potential for a hands-on owner-operator or as a strategic addition to an existing business
- Comprehensive range of services including alarm monitoring, access control systems, CCTV installation, and more

The business will need to be relocated shortly after settlement, but no lease commitments offer a new owner plenty of flexibility about location.
