Care, Community & Opportunity – Taranaki DHB Rest Home Facility Ready for Growth

I'm pleased to present this privately owned aged care facility in Taranaki, offering Rest Home and Supported Living services with a 48-month certification in place. This charming, well-established business would ideally suit a registered nurse seeking an owner-operator opportunity.

The facility enjoys a strong reputation and is currently run part-time by its owners, who have made notable improvements but are now stepping away from aged care to focus on other ventures. This creates an exciting opportunity for a new owner to take the reins and continue to grow the business.

Set in a desirable Taranaki town, the property is well-presented with a warm, welcoming atmosphere, delivering genuine care with plenty of smiles. The facility supports residents, boarders, and staff with a focus on comfort, community, and quality of life.

The experienced team is well-equipped to manage a range of care needs, supported by readily available health professionals. Nutritious meals are prepared on-site, and residents enjoy a programme of engaging activities and outings.

From a financial perspective, the facility achieved an EBITA of $252,087 for the year ending 31 March 2025. Occupancy for the same period averaged 70%, reflecting a key opportunity for growth. A new owner could:

- Step in as a full-time manager;
- Increase occupancy to 90%+ to boost revenue and profitability; and
- Explore repurposing rooms for dementia or dual-purpose care.

This is a “Business Only” sale, offered with a secure operating lease through to 2047.

Asking Price: $600,000 + GST (if any)
