

North Shore Panelbeaters

This is your chance to take the wheel of a long-established, highly respected panel-beating and refinishing business with contracts from some of New Zealand's biggest insurance companies.

For decades, this business has built its reputation on delivering quality, honesty, and timely service. It's a preferred supplier to major insurers - a status earned through consistent excellence and enjoys a steady flow of work without the need for advertising.

With experienced staff, fully equipped facilities, and strong systems in place, the business offers an incoming owner a turnkey opportunity to step straight into success. Whether you're an industry professional ready to own your first shop, or an operator looking to expand your footprint, this profitable, well-run business is primed for growth.

Key Highlights:

- Preferred supplier to leading insurance companies
- Long-standing, loyal customer base
- Well-equipped workshop with modern tools and facilities
- Strong, consistent financial performance
- Growth potential through increased staffing and marketing
