With a small team of experienced long-term casual staff, business consistently generated from referrals, repeat customers, and word-of-mouth, and proven systems in place to support healthy margins, this operation produces strong cashflow with low overheads.

Revenue has grown year-on-year, and there's real opportunity to scale further. The owner has invested in systems, branding, and a distinctive mobile catering model that sets the business apart in the Bay of Plenty. With high demand for its sought-after menu, the brand continues to earn glowing feedback long after each event.

This is a robust, well-run business offering excellent returns, broad market appeal, and long-term sustainability. With the vendor happy to assist through a flexible handover, this opportunity suits someone with drive and vision to take full advantage of the 2025/26 summer pipeline.

Asking Price: $130,000.00, including $50,000 in assets
