Profitable Niche Industrial Manufacturer – High Margins, Huge Growth Potential

This is your chance to acquire a well-established New Zealand manufacturer specialising in high-margin, low-volume, custom-engineered solutions for industrial and food production clients nationwide.

With over 40 years of proven performance, this business has built a trusted reputation for delivering what others can't – urgent, technically challenging jobs in Teflon coating, silicone moulding, and bespoke part production. Clients return year after year for its quality, responsiveness, and problem-solving expertise.

Highlights:

- Strong gross profit margins
- Loyal, diversified client base across multiple industries
- Low overheads, lean staffing model, and minimal stock requirements
- Underutilised capacity and proven capability for growth
- Vendor willing to provide extensive handover and training for an agreed period
- Located in a central, light-industrial facility with long lease available or freehold

Little has been invested in outbound sales or marketing, meaning a strategic new owner could rapidly increase revenue through targeted promotion, partnerships, or new service lines. Opportunities also exist to expand into complementary sectors, develop proprietary products, or tap into export markets.

If you have an engineering, manufacturing, or business growth background, this is a rare opportunity to take a defensible, profitable niche business and scale it to the next level.

Asking Price: $395,000 inclusive of stock ~$135,000
