Rare Opportunity to Step in and Scale

This is your chance to acquire a well-established New Zealand light manufacturer with over 40 years of proven expertise in a simple, high-margin niche, serving multiple industries nationwide. Renowned for delivering on time, the business has earned a formidable reputation, long-standing client relationships, and minimal direct competition – a defensible position that has taken decades to build.

Why It is a Smart Buy

The owner stepped back for health reasons several years ago. Since then, the business has been kept steady by a family member with limited growth activity. While recent results reflect this lower operational input, the foundations remain rock solid – loyal clients, well-maintained plant, and clear scope for expansion. The family member now wishes to move on, hence the offer to sell.

Future Opportunity

- Proactive sales and marketing to lift revenue
- Expand output using existing capacity and client demand
- Introduce complementary services or product lines
- Target high-margin opportunities and new markets
