

Coppins Outdoors – A Rare Opportunity at an Exceptional Price

$395,000 Includes approx. $250,000 stock

After many years in business, Coppins Outdoors is one of Motueka's most trusted and longest-standing retail brands. Previously marketed at around $800,000, this desirable business is now offered at just $395,000, making it an exceptional buy for the right new owner.

Located at 255 High Street, the store sits on one of Motueka's most high-profile sites and is the go-to destination for E-bikes, bikes, camping gear, fishing equipment, kayaks, tramping supplies and general outdoor essentials. With travellers heading to Abel Tasman National Park passing right by the door, the business enjoys strong year-round demand from both locals and visitors.

Coppins Outdoors offers an enormous product range, a respected reputation, and a fully equipped bike workshop providing ongoing service, repairs and E-bike maintenance.

This is an ideal opportunity for:

- A younger family wanting a lifestyle business in the outdoors

- A hands-on operator with practical, mechanical or retail skills
- A buyer looking for a well-established, low-risk entry into business ownership
- Anyone wanting to secure a long-standing brand at a genuine value price

The premises may also be available for purchase at registered valuation, offering long-term security.

With stock levels around $250,000, a strong brand heritage, excellent location, and a dramatically reduced asking price, this is a rare chance to secure a premium outdoor retail business for far less than replacement cost.
