

Auto Accessories Stock & Business – $230,000

Massive price reduction – includes approx $130,000 stock plus optional workshop (no cost)

The owner is relocating overseas and is highly motivated to sell. This presents an excellent opportunity for a buyer ready to move quickly!

The asking price reflects the value of an established auto accessories business, supplying tradies, recreational users, car yards, dealerships, fleet operators, and the general public. It includes stock, tangible assets, supplier/product knowledge, customer history, a large online retail website/store and goodwill.

The business currently also operates a profitable workshop installing products for customers who want them fitted. However, a buyer does not have to continue this model. The workshop can be retained, relocated, outsourced, or treated as a bonus income stream.

That is the key point: the business has been priced around the stock, assets and product sales opportunity only. The workshop is effectively included as an optional bonus for the right buyer.
