High Profit Recurring Revenue Business

Highly profitable NZ-based business operating within a specialised equipment supply and service sector. The business has an established nationwide customer base, recurring contracted income, and a proven long-term operating history. Simple to run, highly flexible, and currently operated with minimal owner involvement.

- 5y Average Discretionary Earnings approx. $420,000
- FY2026 Discretionary Earnings approx. $487,000
- Strong recurring revenue from contracted customers
- Minimal day-to-day owner involvement (2 - 4 hours weekly)
- No staff and low overhead operating model
- Home-based and fully relocatable within NZ
- Limited current marketing and sales activity
- Significant growth potential in NZ and overseas
- Established supplier relationships and loyal client base

The business has continued to perform strongly despite the vendor focusing attention on another international venture and undertaking very limited marketing or business development activity. This presents a substantial opportunity for a new owner to increase sales, expand the customer base, and further grow recurring revenue streams.
