

Early Learning Centre – Highly Sought-After Waikato Location

Situated in a sought-after lifestyle location, this purpose-built ECE presents an opportunity to acquire a highly regarded and beautifully presented business with an outstanding community reputation.

The business is supported by excellent regulatory feedback, a dedicated team of experienced long-term staff, and robust systems that ensure smooth and efficient day-to-day operations within thoughtfully designed indoor and outdoor learning spaces.

This is an ideal opportunity for owner-operators or investors seeking a well-established, fully managed business with a proven track record and compelling future potential. The centre has operated successfully under a fully managed model for the past six years, demonstrating strong systems and capable leadership. With improved cost management and operational efficiencies, there is significant scope to enhance profitability. Based on current performance, these improvements could have increased the 2025/2026 bottom line by more than $100,000, resulting in a forecast fully managed EBITDA of approximately $230,000 for the
