

Restaurant & Catering | Two Revenue Streams, One Kitchen | West Auckland

One site, one kitchen, one team, two completely different revenue streams. The restaurant and the catering arm share every overhead but reach the market in entirely different ways, which gives the business a diversified, resilient income base rather than a single revenue line to defend.

The restaurant seats 100 and trades Thursday to Sunday, the larger and faster-growing of the two arms. It carries a 4.7-star Google rating across nearly 200 customer reviews and an A-grade food rating. The licence permits seven days, 11am to 11pm, for up to 150 people.

The catering arm has run for ten years, serving corporate functions, weddings and private events across Auckland. It has a full-time coordinator running each job from enquiry through to on-site delivery, standardised menus and pricing, and a fleet able to service two large events at the same time

- Over half the asking price backed by tangible assets valued at circa $180,000
- Trading four days a week on a licence that permits all seven
