Profitable Multi-Site Allied Healthcare Practice – 2 Clinics

Well-established clinics are an ideal acquisition for a healthcare professional, or for investors looking to enter the healthcare sector with the benefit of an already successful business.

Based in one of New Zealand's largest catchments, the two clinics are fully equipped with multiple treatment rooms at each location, and day-to-day operations are managed by an administrative and clinical leadership group, leaving an incoming owner free to focus on growth. The practice has been steadily producing seven-figure revenue in each of the last four years, and with additional capacity at both clinics and a growing catchment, there is clear headroom to grow further.

Key points:

- ☑ Broad spectrum of high-quality healthcare services
- ☑ Diversified service offerings to cater to a wide range of patients
- ☑ Access to an extensive client database & longstanding referral network
- ☑ Profitable and established business with a strong financial
