

Creative Agency with Strong Growth & Retainers

An exciting opportunity to acquire a well-established Auckland creative agency with an impressive client portfolio, experienced team and strong platform for further growth.

Operating for a decade, the business has built an excellent reputation for producing high-quality creative content for some of New Zealand's best-known FMCG and consumer brands. Revenue hit $1 million in FY26, continuing a strong long-term growth story.

Key highlights include:

- One-third of revenue secured through retainers
- Top client base featuring leading New Zealand brands
- Experienced team
- Well-equipped premises with an on-site photography and production studio
- Recently introduced adjacent service line
- Significant potential to grow
- Supportive vendor available to assist with a smooth transition

This opportunity could be particularly attractive to an existing agency or complementary business looking to add scale, talent, production capability and an enviable client base.
