

Award-Winning Floors and Scalable E-Commerce Brand

A booming coastal region, a trade brand with a stack of five-star reviews and a pipeline booked up for the rest of the year, PLUS a high-margin e-commerce brand just hitting its stride. Sound too good to be true?
It isn't.

Eight years in the making, this is one of the most-reviewed timber flooring specialists in the Bay of Plenty, built on genuine craftsmanship, not a franchise agreement. Independently owned means NO franchise fees, NO royalties and NO limits on where it can grow.

And here's the part that changes everything. Tucked inside is a direct-to-consumer cleaning products brand, launched just months ago and already turning heads: margins above 70%, a live subscription model, wholesale interest from a major hardware retailer, and export enquiries out of Australia. The upside is enormous for the right buyer.

Best of all, it's tools optional. A skilled full-time sander and a trusted contractor network mean you can run the business rather than work in it.
