

Low Overheads, Upward Sales Trend & Profitable

Established Tauranga Service Business | Profits Circa $200k

This established independent service business operates across Tauranga, Mount Maunganui and Papamoa, with a proven model, strong systems and an experienced team already in place.

The business has grown steadily and is now supported by three full-time employees alongside the working owner. With no commercial lease required and minimal specialised asset requirements, the operation remains relatively lean and can be managed from anywhere within the Bay of Plenty.

A strong combination of repeat customers, referrals and an established online presence continues to generate new business, with sales growing year on year.

Key highlights include:

- Working owner profit just below $200,000 last year
- Year-to-date sales ahead of the previous year
- Three experienced full-time employees
- Strong repeat and referral customer base
- Established website and online presence
- No commercial premises or lease required

Price $380,000
