

Highly Regarded Baby Products Retailer

Asking Price: $330,000 including approx. $150,000 stock

Love children? Believe in high-quality and safe products that Kiwi families can rely on? This business could be the one for you!

The business has enjoyed fantastic revenue over the years and continues to deliver excellent returns, even through the recent difficult economic times, bucking the downward trend many retailers have experienced. With recent growth in retailer optimism, now is the time to step into this well-staffed business and take charge of your future as a business owner in 2027!

No need for industry experience, as this business is part of a large, well-respected franchise -training will be provided, and good systems are in place.

Last financial year, the working owner's cash surplus was over $120,000 for less than full-time hours.
