

Profitable Drive-Thru Coffee Kiosk

Situated in a high density traffic flow area on Auckland's North Shore, this non franchised, roadside drive through cafe kiosk really is a top performer. Currently serving an average of 1,500 hot and cold beverages per week, customers are also offered a delicious range of locally sourced foods that complement the quality coffee perfectly! The well trained staff understand the business well and are known for their friendly, humorous service and customer first approach which attracts a lot repeat clientele. They know the importance and dynamics of delivering a good brew in good time and will always do so with a smile. The current owners have a long history in customer service and have installed the importance of this into all areas of this business from its birth in 2010 resulting in an ever increasing turnover and drive through client base. There is a saying... Over a cappuccino flow matters of high importance, politics and common gossip. Coffee is a social binder, a warmer of tongues, a soberer of minds, a stimulant of wit and a foiler of sleep if you want it so. With a cash surplus of just over $100,000 to the part time owners, this business has a great location an ever increasing profit and would suit a vibrant go getter to continue its success. Asking $225,000 inclusive. If you are interested and would like more information about this business, visit www.barkerbusiness.co.nz, register your details and submit
