

Private Training Establishment, Great Cash Surplus

This business has really set itself apart from any competition and truly is a step above the rest. Based in one of Auckland's beautiful and affluent areas, we are excited to present such an exciting opportunity. The Vendor has instructed that the business be marketed in the highest of confidence but what we can tell you is that this long established facility (almost 30 years) is generating an annual revenue in excess of $3.6 million with an averaged cash surplus (EBPIDT) over the last 5 years of $250,000+! The diverse revenue streams this business offers means that we are looking at a projected cash surplus for 2016 of over $300,000. With high barriers to entry and set in a secure business sector, the owners have worked hard to create a fantastic work culture with loyal and dedicated staff that are very competent in their roles. They have built a very strong brand in the industry, are highly respected and are known as being a leader in their field; both nationally and abroad. The need for this type of business in NZ is ever growing and they hold all the right accreditations and registrations and exceed industry requirements. If required, the General Manager would consider assisting the new owner on a long term basis. Asking $1.2 Million for a low risk investment with high returns. As mentioned, this business is being marketed with the strictest confidence so to find out
